At 1955 # 491 drove by and said he lives there he gave his first name after asking him few times. He starts yelling because he got the sticker and I should let him in. I tried to explain the new procedures but he did not listen. I checked for the first name he gave me and I told him that I could not find his name on the list. He starts cursing (stupid) (F) and many others) nasty words. I asked him to stop, and he kept going on. A girl was with him in the vehicle tried to calm him down and told him he can't say those words. I called for verification and explained to the lady who answered that I was doing my job and following procedures. I printed his pass and let him in while he was still going on with all the curse words anybody can think of.
