Short Term Rentals Progress Report

The District's appointed liaison with the City for Short Term Rentals, Jeff Lurner, will not be in attendance. Jeff did meet with District staff briefly to pass on the news that he has been continuing to work with Jeff Rosaler at the City to further develop and revise certain elements of the Short Term Rental Code in an effort to bring more effective control over rental activity.

The progress to date promises to create a more proactive enforcement program for violators and to establish clearer guidelines for operating and regulating STR's in Dana Point.
